Dear Class 4,

I hope that you have all had a lovely Christmas break and I would like to wish you a Happy New Year! Once again, we find ourselves in a time where, we need to work together and support one another working from home until we are in a position to return to school safely.

Home Learning grids are being added to the Class 4 'Home Learning' area on our school website on a weekly basis so there are plenty of different activities for you to be busy with. I can see that lots of you have started to complete the online learning which has already been uploaded to the 'Home Learning' section of the school website which is excellent to see! I am checking in on the Reading Plus, Bug Club, Times Tables Rock Stars and Purple Mash learning platforms daily to keep a track of what is being completed and to offer any support. Remember that we also have a Class 4 Blog which you can access on Purple Mash that you can use to send me a message as well as my email address: g.fannan300@stjosephsblackhall.net which you can use to contact me at any time.

As Barack Obama once said, "Reading is the gateway skill that makes all other learning possible" so please keep on reading and accessing books through our online platforms as well as websites such as Oxford Owl which have free eBooks available here:

Remember that you can share your learning with me by email so I can add it to our Class 4 Home Learning Gallery so that we can keep our community connected.

When working and communicating online remember the learning we have done around e-safety and always show respect, friendship, excellence and care in all you do and say to one another.

Take good care of yourselves and of your families, be kind to one another and I will hopefully see you all soon.

G. Fannan
