

Breath taking magnificent

Mythical Creatures

bloodcurdling

minute

Medusa

- Known from Greek myths.
- Half woman half snake.
- Turns people to stone.
- Snakes for hair.
- Hands are clawed and made of brass.

Chimera

- Breathes fire.
- Destroys whole cities – very dangerous.
- Created to destroy people.
- Body of a goat, lion and a snake.

Hydra

- Massive serpent-like with 9 heads.
- Highly poisonous.
- If one head is cut off - another will grow.

Griffin

- Half lion half eagle.
- Front legs have talons like an eagle.
- Beak is curved.
- Sometimes has a tail of a snake or a scorpion.
- Protects and defends things.
- Sometimes spotted like a leopard.

Centaur

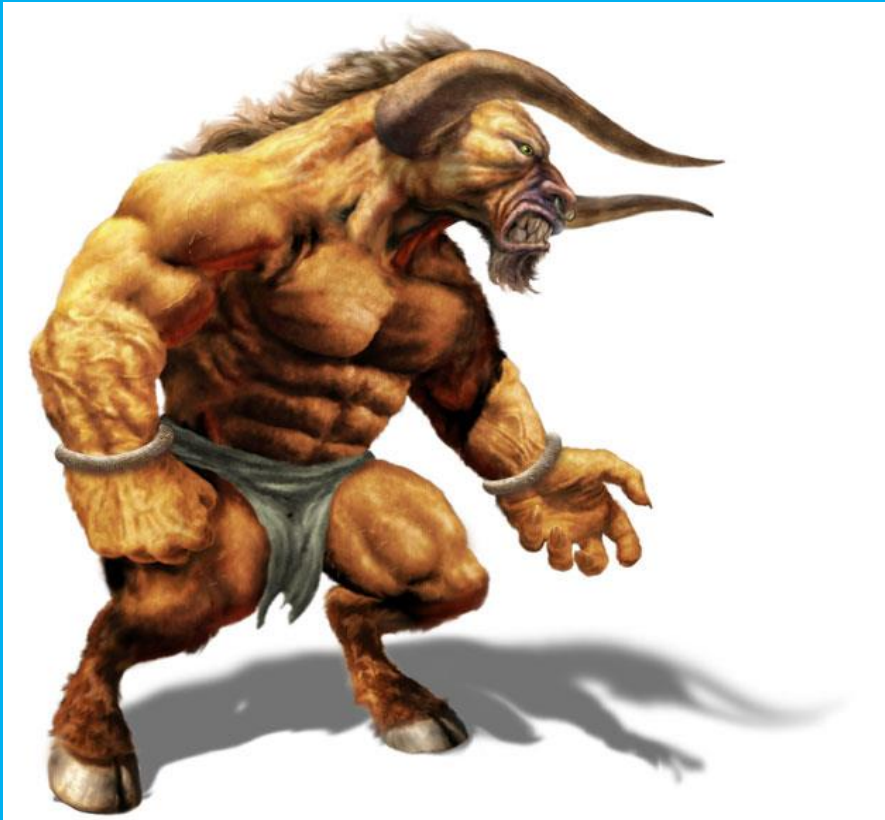

- Half man half horse.
- Could speak.

Cyclops

- Giants with one eye.
- Made lightning and thunderbolts.

Minotaur

Can you think of 2 points to complete for the Minotaur?

A Thesaurus

- Not a mythical creature but a magical book.
- A bit like a dictionary of adjectives.
- A book of words to help you.
- Helps you find a better word.

Your Quest

- Choose a creature we have just talked about.
- Write a description for your classmates without telling them what it is.
- Then share it on Teams and we will try and guess which mythical beast it is.
- Use fantastic descriptions.
- Can you use a thesaurus to help you?
- When you have finished explore this site

GO!