

Religious Education

Year: 5/6

Teacher: Mr Fannan

Week Beginning: 22nd February 2021

Week 6

Every time the Eucharist is celebrated, Christians are keeping the memory of Jesus alive. During the liturgy of the Eucharist, Jesus' actions at the Last Supper are called to mind and made present and real for Christians. These are called the words of consecration, consecration means made holy. The priest holds the host and says the words:

"Take this, all of you, and eat of it: for this is my body which will be given up for you."

and when he holds the chalice he says:

"Take this, all of you, and drink from it: for this is the chalice of my blood, the blood of the new and eternal covenant, which will be poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this in memory of me."

Catholics believe that at this point in the Mass, through the power of the Holy Spirit the bread becomes truly the body of Christ and the wine the blood of Christ. The server will ring a bell as the priest holds up, elevates, the host and then the chalice. People will look up and make an act of faith and pray in their hearts something like 'My Lord and my God', affirming that they truly believe in the words of Jesus, when he said at the Last Supper 'this is my body, this is my blood.' This is the real presence of Christ.

Listen carefully to the words: Do this in memory of me – John Burland (lyrics below)
